

The Redstone Chapter of the Vertical Flight Society
(Previously the American Helicopter Society (AHS) International)
Invites Collegiate Applicants for Science and Engineering Scholarships for the 2021-2022 School Year

Scholarship grants are based upon academic merit and other factors and will be awarded to the best-qualified applicants as determined during a selection process scheduled for May 2021. Depending upon endowment income, the each scholarship awardee may receive up to $4,000.

To become eligible for a scholarship award:

1. The applicant's home of record or the college you will attend must be within the Redstone Chapter's geographic region (i.e., northern Alabama, northern Mississippi, Tennessee, and Arkansas; see the Administrative Information section below or www.ahsredstone.org for details regarding the Chapter's boundaries).
2. For the 2021-2022 school year, an applicant must be enrolled on a full-time basis as a student in an accredited degree program at a 4-year university, and must certify their intent to pursue an undergraduate or graduate degree in math, science, computer science, or engineering subject areas following receipt of the scholarship.
3. The applicant must submit the entire Application for Scholarship, sections I through VII (attached).
4. Additionally, each applicant must provide the following Supporting Information:
 - a. At least one reference letter (academic endorsement) from a professor or dean at your current university. For incoming freshman only, a letter from a teacher/counselor from your high school is an acceptable substitute for the Professor's/Dean's academic endorsement. (Additional letters are permissible, but no more than three reference letters will be considered.) Intern's letters from deans not associated with current academic endeavors will not be considered.
 - b. Current, cumulative transcript(s) of collegiate grades (including the most recent final course grades issued). Transfer students must also submit transcripts from all previous colleges. Incoming freshmen must submit transcripts from all high schools attended (including the most recent final course grades issued).
 - c. Incoming freshmen must submit a copy of your ACT or SAT scores.

d. Awardees will be required to submit a “head and shoulders” color photograph suitable for publication on the Chapter’s web site. Digital photo files are preferred.

e. These supporting items need not be attached to the application, but if submitted separately, they must meet the application deadline of April 1st, 2021.

5. Submit this Application and Supporting Information to the following address. Applications and supporting documentation must be postmarked NLT Monday, April 1, 2021. Hard copy mail must be received by Monday, April 10, 2021. E-mail submissions are acceptable, but must be sent NLT 11:59 PM, April 1, 2021.

Section V. Applicant's Narrative

Applicant's Name: _____

In the space provided below or on a separate page, please provide a legible, 1-page narrative regarding: (1) your academic interests (including your reasons for selecting the university and the specific curriculum for which the scholarship grant will be used); (2) your future career interest in aviation engineering; (3) your previous work/research experience related to aviation.

Section VI. Extracurricular Activities

Applicant's Name: _____

In the space provided below or on a separate page, please provide a legible, 1-page narrative discussing your participation in activities outside the classroom. These may include, but are not limited to, participation in fraternal, religious, or voluntary organizations, professional societies and associations, sports, relevant awards, scholarships, leadership experience, hobbies, science projects, publications, military service, volunteer work, or other extracurricular activities.

Section VII. Scholarship Need (Optional)

Applicant's Name: _____

We understand that college is very expensive and that everyone can use additional funds. This narrative is intended as an optional opportunity to identify any special circumstances about your financial or personal situations. In the past, applicants with special circumstances have submitted narratives describing how they were one of several children within their family simultaneously enrolled in college, how their parents worked multiple jobs simultaneously to pay for college, how they needed funds to continue their graduate research, etc.

In the space provided below, or on a separate page, please provide a legible narrative describing any special circumstances not discussed in the previous narratives. If you elect not to respond to this narrative request, it will not adversely affect your application in any way. Please limit your response to one page.
